You can also contact DPD customer services on 0121 275 0500.Please note all delivery times are approximate, occasionally, delivery periods may be extended for reasons beyond our control and we apologise for this in advance. Please note we regularly update our website but cannot always guarantee our suppliers have products in stock. This service includes working days only, any orders placed over the weekend are not processed until Monday, so the delivery time will go from then. What Our Delivery Terms MeanUsually Delivered In.....This means stock is delivered to us which we then forward on to our customer OR stock is delivered directly from our supplier / manufacturer to our customer. This is dependent on size & weight of items. On the day of dispatch you will receive a text / email with the approximate time your parcel will be delivered (normally an hours delivery window is given). This will be displayed at the point of checkout & we reserve the right to apply carriage after the order has been placed with your consent. Once the delivery situation is more stable, we will implement the required data in order to provide a reliable delivery service into Europe.If you require delivery to the EU or Northern Ireland, please use the form on our Delivery Information page to contact us and we will do our best to offer a delivery quotation. Our cut-off time for orders placed on next working day delivery is generally 2.30pm, although this can be extended on some items. please call us to check.UK Saturday DeliveryIt is possible to get a Saturday delivery on some products, however the price and availability of this service is completely dependent on the brand of items on the order & the overall weight of the order - for a Saturday delivery please contact us. We also use other pallet / courier services where sometimes tracking information is not available.If you wish to track your DPD parcel please click here. If available there will be an option to select during the checkout process. The cost of next day varies based on weight and size of the order, heavier items can be considerably more than £9.95, the amount will be shown in the checkout process before completing. If you require a delivery urgently by a certain date please contact our sales team quoting item description & product code.For multiple product orders where different delivery times are shown, please go by the product showing the longest delivery time. © 1996-2015, Amazon.com, Inc. Deliveries into Europe & Overseas Placing online orders for delivery into the EU, including ROI has currently been suspended.Due to the current backlog at UK ports, and the closure of some ports and borders into Europe, we have taken the difficult decision to make this unavailable for a period of time.We would not like to offer customers a service that we are not able to rely on.We will look to make this available again as soon as possible, however, there are new requirements that will be in place for products leaving the UK into Europe after Brexit on 1st January 2021. Usually delivered in 1-2 working days (weight restrictions may apply). Delivery will be within days shown. For Latest Delivery Information Please See Here. If you would like partial (split) delivery please contact our sales team who will assist with your request. Most of our parcels are dispatched via DPD. If you require next working day delivery please select option at checkout.Pre-OrderSome of our products can be bought on a Pre-Order basis, this will be shown on individual product pages if available. Additional carriage charges may also apply to large & heavy products or if a specialist courier is required.UK Next Working Day Delivery 25/03/2020 Please note this delivery option has been suspended during the COVID-19 outbreakNext working day delivery is available for a selection of products and is priced from £9.95. Please note however, it is your responsibility to ensure you are available when the courier attempts delivery as not all courier firms have the facility to call ahead. UK Standard Delivery - £5.99 or *FREE Over £100.00 (Including VAT)Some orders may have additional carriage applied if they are of a certain postcode (e.g. in Scottish Highlands etc.). Delivery times are provided by manufactures & will be shown on individual product pages, these are for guidance only & can change without prior notice. If the time given is unsuitable it is highly recommended that you rearrange delivery of your parcel by replying directly to DPD via the text / email or you can request your parcel is left in a safe place or with a neighbour. Typically dispatched same working day if order placed before before 2:30pm, or its affiliates DELIVERY INFORMATION All orders are being processed. Pre-Order products are normally 'soon to be released' items or stock which is awaiting delivery from the manufacturers. If there is an issue with stock we will notify you as soon as we can via telephone / email.In Stock - Ready For DispatchThis means we physically have the stock in our warehouse.
